The risk indicator assumes you keep the investment option (product) for 1 year.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this investment product (product) compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the investment product (product) will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this investment product (product) as class 1 out of 7, which is the lowest risk class. In other words, the performance of the financial markets should not affect the amount of your investments.

In other words, potential losses linked to future product performance are very low, and should market conditions deteriorate, it is highly unlikely that our ability to pay you will be affected.

You are entitled to the return of your entire capital. Depending on the terms of the policy in which this fund is offered, your capital may be reduced each year by the policy's administrative management fees, which may result in a reduction in the surrender value. As for any additional yield, it depends on the future performance of the markets representing the fund's underlying assets, and remain uncertain.

If we are unable to pay you the amounts due, you could lose your entire investment. However, you may benefit from a consumer protection scheme (see the section "What happens if we are unable to make payments?" in the Key Information Document of the life insurance or capital accumulation policy). The indicator presented above does not take this protection into account.
